Hey Jack!

We saw you took the New Hampshire out of Bravo Fleet without notifying anyone. Is everything okay? Was there something that precipitated this? Or just a friend asking you to join them?

Thanks,

I wanted to forward this to your other email too, just in case. :)

Thanks,

I had contacted the TF 93 CO and the acting TF 99 CO asking for my data bases, and once had received them I was going to leave, but I was ignored by the acting TF 99 CO, that person never said anything to me until I took the NH out of BF.

Hey,

Thanks for the clarification!

We don't really provide databases for sim websites because they're backed up daily off-server for us. TFCOs also generally don't provide sim website databases because if they did that would make them an accomplice to sedition/mutiny under the Bravo Fleet Magistrate Code for helping a CO move their sim out of the fleet.

Best of luck!

Thanks,

Hi, I hadn't known that you guys didn't. No one recruited me to 22nd fleet, I went there on my own.
